

There is a power within you that is so great...

Discover the one great secret that is changing thousands of lives for the better Right Now!

Finally, the missing piece to all the prosperity, self-help and personal growth programs you have been looking for.

Imagine living without the worry about money. Imagine life with out the fear of losing your job or having to wonder how you are going to make ends meet.

No it's not a trick question; REALLY can you imagine living without worry and fear about money or shame about your debt.

I know, I know. I can just imagine you saying , "Sounds great, as soon as you tell me the winning lottery numbers I'll know and I'll get back to you."

Honestly, can you imagine life without fear, worry, doubt or shame about money?

Are you wealthy? Wealth is not about the green stuff or credit scores or plastic cards. It's about freedom, relationships, good health and having a positive effect in the world.

So let me ask again, are you wealthy?

What would it be like to be happy and relaxed about your finances? What would your relationships be like? What kind of environment would you live in? What kind of choices would you be free to make?

I ask because when I share with people about the Commanding Wealth Circles I get some interesting reactions.

Many of course are immediately intrigued and curious.

Some think they know what it is another "prosperity- feel good- pie in the sky pep rally;" which it is not.

The most interesting reaction comes from people who have a vision of working for themselves yet are afraid to charge for their services, afraid to market their business or afraid to leave a dead-end job.

They say "Oh, I know why I'm broke I just have to work harder, or it's the economy or fill-in the blank on the excuse here".

That's just the fear talking. I know, I was there myself before I attended circles.

I thought I knew what it was. Even though I had seriously destructive money issues. I just thought I had to try harder. I didn't understand the emotions that were driving me to make poor choices and kept me from having any support emotionally, physically and financially.

I had a horrible job that was so stressful it was killing me in inches every day. The irony was that I had a dream and a highly desirable skill set that I knew could make me more money but I was stuck in the fear of change.

The process of The One Command along with being in a supportive, positive environment that blew the doors off my resistance and I discovered not only what was stopping me but learned an incredible set of techniques that helped me make my dreams come true.

Attending and hosting Commanding Wealth Circles has changed my life.

So what is Commanding Wealth and why is it different?

Commanding Wealth Circles are dedicated to making changes in your life through The One Command.

The basis for this teaching is the knowledge that you have an amazing capacity located in that resourceful part of your mind known as the theta state.

By directing your mind to that greater intelligence in 6-Easy Steps you quickly access new and innovative ideas. You are taught to reach that greater intelligence through six-steps that change your thinking from ordinary beta to theta, a much deeper level of your consciousness.

Once you are able to enter into theta at will, you issue the One Command in a unified state of mind; the results are powerful in manifesting what you desire in a moment.

On the personal level, within your body is the blueprint of your character, dreams, and desires. In this teaching you are able to reach naturally and easily into the deepest levels of yourself, even down to your DNA, and thus make remarkable changes in your life.

This information teaches you to Command Your Wealth to you. Once you see the goal, no one can prevent you from making the journey. These original and unusual ideas are designed to change your life forever by changing the way that you think about cash, money, prosperity, and financial wealth.

“Self-trust is the first secret of success”. -Ralph Waldo Emerson

You'll discover what I did, that the key to wealth is already programmed into your DNA. Your desire is the clue to what is possible for you.

Once you connect in to Source Mind and learn to trust yourself and your capacity for greatness, you will experience life from a whole new perspective.

So what would it be like to live a wealthy life with wonderful supportive relationships, moving from success to success and looking forward to new experiences?

Do what hundreds of others have done; attend Commanding Wealth Circles and find out.

People with just ONE COMMAND were able to ...

- Eliminate $45,000 in debt and achieve a $150,000 income
- Write three books AND get them published
- Regain strength and overcome fear after battling cancer
- Turn "just an idea" into a multimillion-dollar business
- Refinance a home within minutes after being refused for years
- Instantly erase decades' worth of emotional pain
- Increase Sales And much, much more

The stories go on and on, and they are all true.